

EQ Seminar Series

Contemporary Psychoanalytic & Developmental Perspectives for Clinicians

In the eye of the beholder: Anna Freud's legacy and her observations of children in the Hampstead War Nurseries.

Speaker: Dr Joshua White

Dr Joshua White is a Consultant Psychiatrist with a specialized interest in Perinatal mental health and founding director of the Gertrude Street Clinic, located directly behind St Vincent's Hospital Fitzroy, from where he also consults to the St Vincent's Private Hospital Maternity Unit and Special Care Nursery, and to the City of Yarra Maternal Child Health & Family Services.. He also provides supervision to St Vincent's Hospital Psychiatry trainees and is a faculty member of the Empathink Introductory Course.

9am-11am (including morning tea and half an hour of discussion), Saturday 15th September 2018

St Vincent's Private Hospital - East Melbourne Campus
159 Grey St. East Melbourne.

Ground Floor Boardroom - Sir James Gobbo Room
(Turn left before café toward Executive Offices).

For parking and public transport information click here
(select EAST MELBOURNE LOCATION on website)

$55 (Max. 40 Capacity). Booking via Trybooking.com To book click here or search 'EQ Seminars' on the site.

Bookings open 13th August 2018, Close 14th September 2018 at 4pm.

The EQ Seminar Series is an initiative of Gertrude Street Clinic and the Empathink Association of Psychoanalytic Self Psychology (EAPSP), aiming to bring together psychotherapy practitioners interested in contemporary perspectives from local and international speakers in the areas of psychoanalysis, trauma and infant/child development. Suggestions always welcome - please feel free to contact us with any ideas for future seminars. gertrudestreet@bigpond.com ph. 03 9419 3001